No Decision
On Prohibition

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 26.—The supreme court failed again today to hand down a decision on the constitutionality of the prohibition amendment and the enforcement act.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 26.—The federal government today won its anti-trust suit against the Reading Company and affiliated coal companies in one of the so-called antitrust coal trust cases.

By a vote of 4 to 3, the supreme court sustained the government's charge that the companies violated the "commodities clause" of the interstate commerce act and ordered the dissolution of the companies.

The Reading and Central of New Jersey railroads, the court decided, must dispose of stock ownership, respectively, of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company and the Lehigh and Wilkes-Barre Coal Company.

Justice Clarke rendered the decision for the majority, while Chief Justice White in a minority opinion in which Associate Justice Holmes and Van Devender joined, said minority was in favor of accepting the opinion of the lower court.

Will Abandon
Trip To Pole

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 26.—Radio messages received today by the navy department from its station at Cordova, Alaska, indicate that Roald Amundsen, the Arctic explorer, intends to abandon his effort to reach the north pole.

The message said it was understood that Amundsen, who arrived last week at Anadyr, Siberia, intended to take the steamer Victoria at Nome, for Seattle. It was stated that the time of his departure would depend on the time of his getting clear of ice in Siberia.

Albanian
Government
Overthrown

LONDON, April 26.—Supporters of Enver Pasha, a Turkish nationalist leader and former provisional president of Albania, have occupied Tirana, Albania and overthrown the Albanian government, according to a message from Floring, transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Athens. The members of the overthrown government have been dispersed, the message adds.

The Albanian government forces were conducting a campaign to get voters to go to the polls is expected to bring out a heavy Republican vote. The ticket they left have been taken over by the Italians, the message states. It is reported that there were 200 casualties at the end of the fighting.

After considerable fighting between the Enver Pasha forces and the government forces the former occupied Kavala, southwest of Durazzo, and Krushevo, Durazzo is regarded as the objective of the anti-government forces.

Crucial Stage
In Hard Coal
Wage Parley

NEW YORK, April 26.—The anthracite wage negotiations have reached their crucial stage and a peaceful outcome of the proceedings will depend upon developments of the next few days, representatives of the United Mine Workers declared today. They added that the next move was "up to the operators" as they had modified their demands to the limit.

When the sub committee of miners and operators appointed to negotiate the new agreement met today the employers were expected to reply to the workers' modified demands for a wage increase equal to that granted the bituminous miners recently and for a minimum eight hour day in the anthracite industry.

TO CONTINUE TO NEGOTIATE
ON THE FIUME
SETTLEMENT

SAN REMO, April 26.—(By the Associated Press)—The council of premiers at the request of Premier Nitti of Italy and Foreign Minister Trumbull of Jugo-Slavia, will allow the Adriatic question to remain in negotiation between the Italian and Jugo-Slavia governments, it was learned today.

SAN REMO, April 26.—The supreme council is sending a formal request to President Wilson that the United States government take the mandate for Armenia.

There seems to be a division on the part of the council as to whether the region of Erzerni and its vicinity should be included in the territory of the Armenia Republic. The Turkish nationalists are strongly claiming Erzerni for themselves.

Asked to Fix Boundary

The supreme council today also decided to ask President Wilson to arbitrate the boundaries of the new republic.

The council awarded a mandate for Mesopotamia and Palestine to Great Britain and a mandate for Syria to France.

In placing Palestine under a British mandate the council established within the ancient limits of the Holy Land what is called "the National Home for the Jews."

The terms of the mandate "protect the national rights of Jewish citizens of other countries. That is to say, a Jew of American, British, French, or other nationality may retain his nationality, although he is also a citizen of the state of Palestine."

Arabs' Rights Protected

The rights of Arabs also are protected, there being 600,000 in Palestine and 100,000 Jews.

France has been the protector of the Christians in Syria since the Middle Ages, having been designated for the purpose of the Holy See. The question with regard to Syria has been in serious controversy between the French and British governments since the armistice was signed, particularly over the point whether France should have all of what is geographically outlined as Syria, or only certain parts.

Asked Nitti's Proposal

The Adriatic question was brought before the supreme council. The Italian premier, Signor Nitti, proposed a settlement that followed generally President Wilson's note of December 9. It varies however, to include a constitution for the buffer state of Fiume, to which both the French and British premiers objected on the ground that it limited too greatly the character of the new state.

Premier Nitti pointed out that the Italian proposal was almost identical with that of President Wilson. Nevertheless, after considerable discussion, both the French and British delegations said they could not accept it. They declared that they should either take President Wilson's plan or abide by that of the pact of London, which gives Fiume to the Jugo-Slavs.

Premier Nitti promised to give his decision later. The general belief is that he will prefer President Wilson's settlement to the pact of London.

The supreme council began its work today with the intention of finishing the remaining labor before night. The premiers had important decisions to make, chiefly those concerning the form in which the note to Germany

300 RAIDERS ATTACK
IRISH POLICE BARRACKS

CLONROCHE, COUNTY WEXFORD, IRELAND, April 26.—Three hundred men attacked the police barracks here early today and rifle and revolver firing was incessant for two hours. All of the windows of the barracks were broken. The five policemen who occupied the building successfully repulsed the raiders without casualty. The latter had a large supply of bombs, but did not use them.

Contradictory Statements
On The Strike

CHICAGO, April 26.—Developments in the strike of insurgent railroad workers in the Chicago district today were confined to issuance of statements by the railroad, managers and strikers. The managers said 3,500 men were at work yesterday and that freight traffic was 90 percent of normal. The strikers asserted the number of men the railroads sold were at work was less than one fifth the normal number. That the industrial situation rapidly was growing worse, with a number of plants facing shut down because of lack of coal, and that because the railroads could not continue using high priced men as substitute strikers, a compromise would be forced sooner or later.

Elsewhere in the central and far west a gradual return to normal freight movement was reported.

FEAR BLACK LIST

NEW YORK, April 26.—Fear of a black list which would bar them permanently from employment, appeared to be one of the driving forces today behind the steady break of the railroad workers' strike reported by rail road officials.

Although no hint of such a plan has come from the managers, possibility of its adoption was discussed freely by some strikers after they learned at a mass meeting last night that nine local units of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen in the New York, New Jersey district had lost their union charters by action of brotherhood officials.

Officials of the lines continued to day their optimistic statements of last week that traffic was returning to normal and that the effects of the strike soon would wholly disappear.

Operators In

CLEVELAND, O., April 26.—Conferences between members of the miners and operators scale committees of number 8 coal district in eastern Ohio, which opened in Wheeling Saturday, were resumed here today over the forty one demands of the miners. President William Roy of sub-district number 5 miners union acted as chairman and C. J. Albin of the Pittsburgh coal operators association secretary.

The demands include a holiday May first, extra pay for taking out stone, pay for all coal on the mine run basis and better sanitary conditions in mining communities.

W. T. Roberts, of Burton, chairman of the scale committee, headed the miners committee. Other members are Edward Rehbold, Martin Ferry, Joseph O'Grady, Neffs; Ettor Delgizzi, Bellafra, W. B. Traus, Shadstone; Alex Felts, Dillonvale, Jim Kincaid, Neffs; James Kunik, Brookville; Jack Bell, Tintonville and Lebold Zenoff, Newland, W. Va.

700 THEFTS
IN CHICAGO
CLEARED UP
BY SHOOTING

CHICAGO, April 26.—Seven hundred robberies, whose total is believed to total more than $500,000, were cleared today when police examined the effects of Harry J. James, "the masked burglar" who was killed last night after "shooting up" the town hall police station, wounding two policemen.

In James' private warehouse, where truck loads of rare art works, oriental rugs, jewels, typewriters, adding machines and dozens of other articles were found, police uncovered a card index in which the 700 robberies were listed, with the loot obtained.

Another section of the card file listed "prospects" and the wealth of data about each indicated that James had used an electric light inspector's card, found in his pocket, to gain entrance to the houses.

A third file listed "gold coast" automobiles, with description, license number, owner's name and "fair," "good" or "awful" to indicate valuation.

Police also found ledgers listing foot sold, with the price obtained, and a list of pawn brokers, with the type of goods each preferred to buy.

In a secret chamber in the basement were 150 oriental rugs appraised by an expert at $10,000.

When James was killed, he was found to be wearing a suit belonging to former United States Senator William Lorimer. The suit was one of 40 stolen from a tailor shop.

49 Pure Food
Violation
Convictions

WASHINGTON, April 26.—Goven-ment charges involving violation of pure food laws were upheld in 49 out of 50 cases recently decided in federal courts, it was announced today by the bureau of chemistry, depart-

These actions were based on the adulteration of tomato products, including catsup, the most frequent charge that of the use of moldy or rotten tomatoes in preparing the products.

Stock feed made from cottonseed meal or cake was the basis of 11 actions, the most frequent charge being that of misbranding.

Canned salmon was the basis of four seizures. Spoilage was the charge made in each seizure.

Other prosecutions and seizures included a shipment of sardines which were destroyed, and three shipments of olive oil adulterated with cottonseed oil; an artificial vinegar labeled
"old" vinegar seized, the manufacturer being fined $400.

The adoption of this clause gave rise to some discussion. Premier Nitti, of Italy, opposed military measures. Premier Millerand and Lloyd George however, showed the Italian prime minister the necessity of considering such an eventuality.

Foreign Minister Hyman, of Belgium and Baron Matsui, the Japanese ambassador to France, joined them in this point of view, which was adopted by the council.

The text of the declaration which will be particularly pleasing to the French will be published this evening.

It was announced that representatives of the allies will meet the German Chancellor Mueller at Spa, Belgium, on May 25.

Marshall Neilan's first personally produced superpicture from his own studios brings to the screen one of the strongest stories ever written

Marshall Neilan presents 'The River's End' by James Oliver Curwood

On the edge of civilization there are no traditions. Men meet life with all the strength of soul within them. That is why the greatest stories have always been written, not of society, but of the virile people nearest the great outdoors. There men may be good—or bad—but whatever they are, they are strong. "The River's End" is a story of the northwest; of adventure and a story of a wonderful love. It is Mr. Neilan's best production and Mr. Curwood's finest novel.

Therefore you may expect to see something extraordinary, and you will not be disappointed.

A sheepskin is of great value to a person who is confined to the bed. But under the sheet, wool skin up, it is delightfully soft and restful for the patient. It is well to have two of them, so that one can be in use while the other is being aired. To keep them soft and dry they should be beaten on the back—never on the wool side.

Formation of Asbestos.

Asbestos is found in fissures of rock and it is believed that, when the rock was forming and still hot, water penetrated the fissures, widened them and dissolved some of the silica and magnesia. On drying, these crystallized as a hydrated silicate of magnesia, forming threadlike crystals building up from opposite walls of the fissure and meeting in the middle.

She Believes There Is Magic In Vola-Tonic

Declarer there must be magic in Vola-Tonic, Mrs. Henry Lelur, 4330

how the medicine had helped her.

"My system all over was weakened and run down," Mrs. Lelur said. "For the last seven or eight months I have been so weak and nervous that I couldn't do the housework right. My nerves were out of order that it nobody spoke a sharp word I'd go all to pieces. The noise of a wagon passing in the street or the children playing got on my nerves."

"At night I couldn't sleep or rest but would just toss and roll about the bed and would get up the next morning feeling worse than I did the night before."

"I took Vola-Tonic and from the way it built me up I think there must be magic in it. My nerves are in much better condition now. I sleep soundly every night and get good rest."

"In fact, I'm feeling better since taking Vola-Tonic than for years and naturally, I'm glad to recommend the medicine that did so much for me."

Table Linens

"Soak your clothes with Grandma."

Table cloths and table linens should be more than white. They should almost sparkle in their whiteness. Soak them with Grandma. Let them remain in the water over night—or for two hours in the morning.

Then boil them for twenty minutes adding Grandma's Powdered Soap or put them through the machine for twenty minutes in hot Grandma suds.

Rinse well several times. The results will amaze you.

In either hot or cold water Grandma produces wonderful results. No sudsing or chipping of bar soap necessary.

A big, generous sized package for 5c. The most economical soap you can use.

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I know of a man who poses as a respected citizen who is not only selling whisky but encouraging bootlegging. I don't know where he gets it, but I could name persons who would love to swear on a will.

Dear Dolly—We are chums 17 years of age and this is our last year at school and we want to know: If we are old enough to go with the boys. Our mothers don't care for us to have boyfriends but the neighbor women talk. They think it all right for their own girls to go out with boys but not for us. Please Dear Dolly have they any right to talk? TWO CHUMS.

If your mother thinks it all right for you to go out with the boys you should worry about what your neighbors think.

times, but there is not enough excitement in Portsmouth to justify anyone in becoming a cigar friend.

Dear Dolly—Will you please print in the paper if Mrs. Lummy Holmes or Willis is anywhere in Portsmouth or Ironton will she please notify you or me. She is my dead mother's sister and I would like to find where she is. Miss Nellie Dawson, New Boston, O.

Dear Dolly—Some time ago my friend and I quarreled and quit. We both go with others, but I believe I can get him back as he has given me several chances to talk to him, but as I did not know what to say to him I passed him on. What would you know?

Speak to him in a friendly way but do not worry about what to say to him. Wait until he finds something to say to you. The friendly greeting on your part is enough.

Dear Miss Wise—Can you tell me anything that will keep the keys on a piano from turning yellow?

HILLTOP READER.

Keep the keyboard of your piano uncovered so that the keys are in the light. This more than anything else keeps them from getting yellow. When you wash the keys use a damp cloth. When the cloth is wet there is danger of getting water in between the keys.

SOCIETY

The following from the Bluefield Daily Telegraph will be of interest locally as the bride is well known in this city, having visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carey, former Portsmouth residents:

A wedding of much interest was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Witten at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, when their daughter, Blanche, was united in holy matrimony to Harry Goodykoontz.

"Jonguis, lavender snap dragons, ferns and lighted candles, all combined, formed the altar, in front of which the bride and groom plighted their troth.

Just before the bridal party entered the room, Miss Ruth Bodell sweetly sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. G. M. Flynn, after which the soft notes from Mendelsohn's wedding march announced the coming of the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Lillian Shuford. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, C. H. Goodykoontz, brother of the groom. Rev. E. S. Hamilton, the bride's pastor, ushered the happy couple, pronounced the words that made the happy couple man and wife.

The bride was lovely in a dark blue traveling suit with accessories in harmony; her flowers being sunburst roses and orchids. Miss Shrewsbury wore a brown satin and tulle gown and her flowers were like those carried by the bride.

Miss Bodell and Mrs. Flynn were corsages of sweet peas and roses.

The ceremony was attended by only a few intimate friends and relatives. The series of attractive pre-nuptial events that have been given to the bride, attest her popularity.

The groom has been connected with his brother in the drug business for some years and is widely known as a young man of sterling character.

"Mr. and Mrs. Goodykoontz left on No. 16 for an extended eastern trip, after which they will make their home in Bluefield. The best wishes of their friends will go with this popular couple for a long and prosperous life.

"The out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Mary Goodykoontz, mother of the groom; Miss Lelia Thornburg, Catlettsburg, Ky.; Miss Dora Poole, St.

Dear Miss Wise—I would like to have your opinion of smoking cigars.

HOW TO RAISE BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water.

More people lose half of every batch of chicks than die. Chicks choke or suffocate and die. The trouble is the chicks hatch from the inside out.

An Avicol tablet, placed in the drinking water, will positively save your little chicks from all these diseases. Birds of all kinds will be healthy as crickets. Avicol keeps them healthy and makes them grow twice as fast.

Mrs. Nannie Thackeray, R. P. D. 3, St. Paul, O., writes: "I had 50 chicks and they all died but 22. Then I commenced on Avicol and haven't lost any since. I have 100 chicks now."

It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find it prevents and promptly cures white diarrhea, chick cholera and all bowel diseases. Avicol will be returned if you are not satisfied.

Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry remedy dealers, or you can send 25c or 50c to the manufacturer.

Avicol, The Anderson-Burke Co., 513 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

Honoring her sister, Mrs. Louella Starlin, dances of Mr. Gerald McKinney, Mrs. C. P. Forrest entertained recently with a most welcome visitor at her home, 1735 Fifth street. During the evening, while the guests played five hundred, a little messenger, Master David Charles Forrest, the bright little son of the household, presented the bride with an attractive basket of gifts of a great variety and use, which she graciously received. At the conclusion of this happy feature, the guests were invited to the dining-room, where the table was made beautiful with the colors the bride has chosen for the wedding—pink and lavender. The center decoration consisted of a simple bride and groom, symbolizing the occasion, with soft shaded candlesticks casting a mellow glow of the same colors, which were used to designate the bride's chair. A dainty ice course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. William Debo and Mrs. James E. Starlin. Those present were: Misses Louella Starlin, Irene Bishop, Helen Goeckner, Alton Debo, Gertrude Billian, Mayne Forrest, Josephine Doerr, Rosella and Catherine Huffer, Mary Pirring, Madeline William Otto, Leo Sommers, Louis Vetter and James E. Miss Blanche Witten, 1431 Offshore street, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Carey in Bluefield, W. Va., where she went to attend the wedding of Miss Blanche Witten to Mr. Harry Goodykoontz, attended a very pretty pre-nuptial party given by Mrs. J. T. Carey and Mrs. Arthur Carey the past week, of which the Bluefield Daily Telegraph contains the following account:

"Miss Blanche Witten, who has been honored and 'showered' by her numerous friends during the past two weeks, was again the guest of honor at one of the prettiest parties of the series, given by Mrs. J. T. Carey and Mrs. Arthur Carey on Thursday afternoon at their home on Summers street.

The tables for bridge were arranged in the large living room and after the game the sitting room of the dining-room were thrown open for the luncheon.

The large dining table, where the honor and her most intimate friends were seated, was most attractively decorated. A large bouquet of snapdragons was the center-piece.

Pink shaded lights threw a soft glow over the pretty surroundings, and the pink and white color-scheme was carried out in place-cards, less and canaries.

Small tables were arranged for the other guests. Sweet peas and pink hyacinths were also used to decorate in the home.

You have the experience of others.

Why Measles May Be Dangerous

This is No. 3 of a series of advertisements, prepared by a prominent physician, explaining how certain diseases which attack the air passages—such as Pneumonia, Influenza, Whooping Cough, Measles or even a long continued Cold—often leave these organs in an inflamed, congested state, thus affording a favorable foothold for invading germs. And how Vick's Vapo-Rub may be of value in this condition.

Few of us escape measles—it is one of the commonest of childhood diseases. Every mother knows the symptoms, but the mistake that most mothers make is in failing to realize that the child is not fully recovered after the eruption and fever disappear. The air passages are still inflamed and if this inflammation is not cleared up, the air passages may be weakened, thus paving the way for pneumonia or serious disease of the lungs.

Nightly applications of Vick's Vapo-Rub will aid nature in relieving this inflammation. Because Vick's acts locally by stimulation thru the skin to draw out the inflammation, attract the blood away from the congested spots and relieve the cough. In addition, the medicinal ingredients of Vick's are vaporized by the body heat. These vapors are breathed in all night long, bringing the medication to bear directly upon the inflamed areas.

Children's digestions are delicate—easily disturbed by too much "dosing." Vick's, therefore, is particularly recommended since it is externally applied and so can be used often and freely without the slightest harmful effects.

Vicks should be rubbed in over the throat and chest until the skin is red—then spread on thickly and covered with hot flannel cloths. Leave the clothing loose around the neck and the bed clothes arranged in the form of a funnel so the vapors arising may be freely inhaled.

If the cough is annoying, swallow a small bit of Vick's the size of a pea.

Samples to new users will be sent free on request to the Vick Chemical Company, 233 Broad Street, Greensboro, N. C.

MOTHER AND LITTLE SON PRAISE TANLAC

Mrs. Nellie Peck Says Her Little Boy Never Had A Well Day Until He Began Taking Tanlac — Now Well And Strong.

MRS. NELLIE PECK,
of Kansas City, Missouri

"I will never be able to pay the debt of gratitude I owe to Tanlac for what it has done for my little boy and me," said Mrs. Nellie Peck, No. 1321 Charlotte St., Kansas City, recently.

"My little boy Curtis is fourteen years old and never in his life had he seen a well day until he began taking Tanlac. I worried and worried over his condition, but in spite of everything I could do he didn't seem to gain any strength and was weak and delicate practically all the time. He seemed to have a very weak stomach. It just looked like he couldn't eat anything and digest it like other children."

"He had no appetite at all and what little he did eat seemed to sour on his stomach. Sometimes his heart would palpitate terribly and he would get so dizzy he could hardly walk and as I stood and looked at him I thought he would surely fall over. He would have bad headaches and was nervous and could never sleep well at night. At school he was never able to keep up his work and he had to stay out a great deal on account of poor health."

"I decided to try it and see if it wouldn't help him. Well, you just can't imagine how overjoyed I was when he began to improve! I kept right on giving him the medicine until now it is hard for me to believe he is the same child. His health is better than ever before in his life and he is bright and playful all the time and he enjoys going out and playing with other boys. He has a splendid appetite and I let him eat anything he wants."

"After seeing what Tanlac did for him I began taking it myself as I have been suffering from stomach trouble, headaches and dizziness for five years. Since taking this grand medicine I am now happy to say that I never suffer any more with these troubles."

"Tanlac has been one of the greatest blessings that ever came into our home and I expect to praise it as long as I live."

Tanlac is sold in Portsmouth by the Fisher and Streach Pharmacy and by the leading druggists in every town.

Grain Ships Break Through The Ice

BUFFALO, April 26.—The first three grain laden vessels to break through the ice on Lake Erie and make this port were held up today on account of labor troubles at the elevators. They were the Wickwire, H. K. Nye and James P. Walsh.

The Housemen's Union has been on a strike for a month because elevator owners refused to meet demands for more pay and shorter hours. The Firemen and Linemen's Association and the Grain Shippers' Local, yesterday voted to support the housemen.

When the grain fleet arrived today the firemen and linemen refused to man the boats to bring them to the elevator. The steamers were anchored at the break wall in the outer harbor.

Indicted On Twenty-four Counts And Pleads Guilty To Each

Defended By Dr. Frederick Blankner and Acquitted Victoriously Of Every Count, And Mr. F. C. Collins, of 1153 11th Street
Is Now A Free Man

For the past ten years or more, Mr. F. C. Collins has been quietly but successfully committing crimes. When he made a little journey to Room No. 2 and 3, Manhattan Hotel, and made a full confession to Dr. Frederick Blankner and was informed that he could be successfully prosecuted and acquitted of all his crimes at one time. He was a little skeptical, but his overpowering faith in what Dr. Blankner told him convinced him that it could be done and here is the way it was accomplished:

For the past ten years or more Mr. Collins has been committing crimes against his general health until every tooth in his mouth was afflicted with the very worst form of pyorrhea. Jaw bones were involved, gums were eaten away and the daily poison that he was absorbing gradually, but successfully, undermining his health.

He had a fear and a dread to have his teeth extracted which he could not overcome. He had consulted others and was informed that he would have to take ether or chloroform. This he dreaded more than having the teeth extracted as he was afraid of the results and that it might be fatal. Well, when he dropped into Room No. 3 and quietly sat down in that god old, god-awful-please rocking chair the prosecution against those diseased teeth started when he was acquitted of one after the other so easily, graciously, scientifically and painlessly, he was overcome with awe and astonishment, he could do nothing but smile and say:

"God bless the doctor. He left Room No. 3 the happiest man in Scioto County and the results of the work will be that he can go right along as though nothing had happened without the slightest inconvenience. Think of it! Twenty-four teeth! Quite an operation, all will admit, but so nicely was it accomplished that nowhere in the United States could it have been done better, if at all. You can go to Mr. Collins, No. 1153 11th St., and see him and he will verify every word said above this being the case why not, if afflicted with diseased teeth, make a little journey to Room No. 3, and meet Dr. Blankner and get relief from your distress the 'Blankner Way,' which is the only way and enjoy the benefits of all the dental work that goes to make the extraction of teeth a pleasure instead of a dread. Mrs. Minnie McCall made the little journey from Jacktown, Ky., and had 22 teeth extracted, and said, 'Dr. Blankner, just tell the people for me that I consider your work a great blessing to people suffering from diseased teeth and just wish I could speak to all the people at once and tell them

A RICH BOON TO AGED MOTHER OF GRAYSVILLE MAN

Nerv-Worth Does Her "More Good Than Any Medicine"
She Is 85 Years Old

A standing claim is to the effect that "Nerv-Worth is truly a family tonic, blessing equally the weak, nervous, excitable child, the worn-out aged ones and the men and women of all ages." Nerv-Worth statements related in these columns have frequently carried signed proofs of this three-sided claim. Here is an entirely new proof of part of this claim. It comes from E. D. Taylor, Nerv-Worth druggist at Woodsfield. In a letter written him by A. Hall of Graysville, written him by A. Hall of Graysville, Ohio.

"My mother, 85 years old," writes Mr. Hall, "has been using Nerv-Worth for some time and says it does her more good than any medicine she can use."

The mother's supply of Nerv-Worth having been exhausted Mr. Hall's letter gives Druggist Taylor an order for a new supply and directs him to forward it. Nerv-Worth flies about in thankful statements from ailing aged folks, who find Nerv-Worth better than any medicine they can use, as Mr. Hall's mother does.

Foster and Streeter's Pharmacy sells Nerv-Worth in Portsmouth.

how grateful I am for your services, as in the past I have suffered untold pain and agony with my teeth and I guess a dozen deaths." My friends, this is all true otherwise it would not be published in this paper. Mrs. D. C. Jenkin, 724 John St., also had twenty-four teeth extracted and made a splendid recovery, notwithstanding that her teeth were exceedingly hard and difficult to extract. You have the same opportunity until Tuesday, May 4th, as Dr. Blankner just had to extract his dice another week.

It is well known that Dr. Blankner specializes in the treatment of complicated chronic diseases of the stomach, liver, bowels, kidneys, heart, lungs and nerves as well as gout, rheumatism, chronic nasal catarrh, chronic eczema, general blood poisoning and gallstones. Dr. Blankner has proven his work to the satisfaction of many people from all parts of Scioto County, who are lavish in the praise of his work. If afflicted, would it not be an art of wisdom on your part to make the journey and meet Dr. Blankner in a heart to heart talk when he will explain the cause of your sickness without asking you a question and inform you just how you can get well. Health is the only asset you have in life that is real for enjoyment and contentment of mind. Disease is a liability of the greatest magnitude, even to a millionaire, as well as those less rich as everyone looks alike to the invasion and evil effects of disease. Enough said.

The French and Italian delegations expect to leave San Remo tonight. The British train has been ordered to be ready tomorrow morning.

Zelotism Are Assured

Assurances have been given by Zionist representatives by British delegations here that the military administration of Palestine, which has been far from satisfactory to Jews, will be changed to a sympathetic civil rule. Zelotism are represented in San Remo by Benjamin Cohen, of Chicago, Ill., who came from Palestine with Dr. Chayim Weizmann, president of the World Zionist commission there.

"Zelotism as a political move, has ended," said Cohen today.

"It can really support two or three times 200,000 and possibly four or five times that number, through the introduction of the best methods of agriculture. Jews in Russia, Poland and Rumania would be glad to emigrate.

"The plans of the Zelotism are that we shall work with the hands rather than with the brain, as the Jews have been doing for the most part in other portions of the world. It will be an interesting social experiment. It will not be socialist, but I think it may be called social.

"America, I think," added Cohen, "will have to supply most of the money until the new state gets going. While some of the expenditures will be productive, others will be unproductive."

"With the creation of a national Jewish home its work now is the development of Palestine and the bringing there of Jewish immigrants from eastern Europe. This development will be largely agricultural. Palestine now has a population of 500,000. In the time of David it had 2,000,000."

Represents that the Adriatic question, including the disposition of Fiume, will be settled by the San Remo council in accordance with President Wilson's program appeared from San Remo advice last night to be at least premature. It was stated that the settlement proposed by Premier Nitti, although following generally the lines of President Wilson's note of December 9, varied from it by including a constitution for the buffer state of Fiume at which both the French and British predicted.

Miss Ethel Burke was the honored guest Sunday of Mrs. Spurgeon Van Ness and Mrs. Clarence Cunningham of Portsmouth.

leaves object, considering that it is largely the character of the new state.

Premier Nitti, it was said, was informed by the French and British delegations that Italy should accept President Wilson's plan or abide by the pact of London, which gave Fiume to the Jugo-Slavs.

Senator Tremper Says Harding Will Sweep Sixth

COLUMBUS, O., April 24.—Senator Tremper of Portsmouth was a visitor at Harding Headquarters and reported that Senator Harding will sweep the sixth district. "Supporters of General Wood," said Senator Tremper, "have an active organization in different sections of the district, with paid agents and have spent much money in newspaper and billboard advertising, but the popular sentiment for Harding is so strong that the Wood movement has made no headway. Indeed, since the several primaries reverse, the Wood movement in the sixth district has receded."—(Portsmouth Times, April 25.)

HARDING To Carry Ohio

His Success Predicted by the Literary Digest, Congressman Kearns' Senator Tremper, Correspondent Gableman and James W. Faulkner

Ohio is safe for Harding. He is the unquestionable choice of the Republicans of the state. Give him a tremendous majority. Every friend and supporter of Senator Harding should make it a point to go to the polls even if it involves some sacrifice.

Give him the delegates of his choice, to wage battle for him and for Ohio at Chicago. They are:

Delegates at large: BERRICK, DAUGHERTY, WILLIS, GAININ,

Sixth District Delegates: McMANIS and HARD

In voting for District Delegates let no supporter of Senator Harding be deceived into voting for a third candidate for delegate who, while he will appear on the ballot as having certified Harding as his choice for president, is not making any pretense of supporting him, but on the contrary is issuing circulars assaulting and deriding the great Ohio statesman.

Therefore vote for McManis and Hard, men of fixed principles, of honest and stable convictions, who not only certified for Harding but have always been and are now honorably and sincerely for him.

The Scioto County Wood Committee in its advertisements sought to humiliate the supporters of Senator Johnson by publishing the assertion that Johnson only has 64 delegates so far! They held up Lowden to derision by claiming he had but 51. They painstakingly pointed out that Hoover did not have a single delegate. But they boastfully claim that Wood had 291.

If these claims are false and misleading they should be resented by every indignant friend of Johnson, Lowden and Hoover; if they are true then Johnson, Lowden and Hoover supporters will deem it the part of wisdom to vote to defeat the Wood candidates for delegate in Ohio. In any event the Wood advertisements make it logical for them to vote for J. O. McManis and Charles E. Hard, candidates for delegates WHO ARE NOT FOR WOOD.

The local Anti-Ohio Club seeks to justify a lack of loyalty to Ohio by saying in its advertisements: "Away with Provincialism." Had it not been for good old-fashioned Ohio "Provincialism" the Buckeye state would not have become the new "Mother of Presidents." For it was Ohio "Provincialism" that secured Hayes, Garfield, McKinley and Taft as presidents for Ohio. And "Provincialism" will on next Tuesday by its loyalty to another Ohio man give Ohio another president in Warren G. Harding.

To those citizens who wish to ride in band wagons we call attention to the fact that the Wood management has lost the last five states in succession. Michigan, South Dakota, Illinois, Nebraska, Montana. The papers say that Ohio will go two to one against Wood. James W. Faulkner in Sunday's Enquirer says: "Especially has the once feverish interest in the Wood candidacy died away. The buffeting he received in states which so confidently were claimed for him has taken the "pop" out of his once enthusiastic workers in this state, and they are fumbling in a more or less mechanical fashion. On the other hand the Harding fellows have rallied and are working harder than at the beginning."

And E. W. Gableman, an old Portsmouth boy in his Washington Correspondence says: "An overwhelming Harding victory in Ohio will occasion no surprise here, where it is thought that Wood sentiment is on the wane. The defeat of the General in Nebraska last Tuesday was his fourth successive reverses in states (since then Montana has made the fifth) where the voters had an opportunity to register their choice of candidates, and it is difficult for a disinterested observer from this distance to conjure a reason why Ohio Republicans should desert their foremost leader in public life."

All that is needed to carry Ohio two to one for Harding and to give our great state another president is for the friends and supporters of Senator Harding to come out and vote. Do your part. Vote and vote early in the day for Ohio, Harding and his delegates.

The Scioto County Harding-for-President Club

Read E. W. Gableman's Figures

E. W. Gableman, Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer, an old Portsmouth boy, on April 25 gave this summary of the Republican presidential situation.

"At this writing 525 of the 984 delegates to the Chicago convention have been chosen. Of these 325 are uninstructed. For General Wood, eighty-three have been instructed. Contrast this statement of a trained and unbiased political observer with the wild and partisan claim of the local Wood propaganda in its Sunday advertisement of 291 for Wood! (See Sunday's Enquirer and read all of Gableman's article and Faulkner's correspondence and note the derision of the Wood "team.")

A. J. Finney, President.

Congressman Kearns Says Ohio 2 to 1 For Harding

Congressman Charles C. Kearns, who, in Washington gets full and accurate information from every district in Ohio, gives out an official statement in which he says that Ohio is going overwhelmingly for Harding. Reports made to him and the other congressmen clearly indicate, he declares, that "Ohio will go two to one for Harding and against Wood."

Jack Sammons, Eighth street steel worker, indicted on a charge of non-support of his child, appeared in Common Pleas court today and Judge Thomas allowed him to go on his promise to pay after the defendant's wife, from whom he has been separated for some months, interceded in his behalf. The couple told the court they had decided to reconcile their differences, and the pair left the court house arm in arm and as loving as two doves.

Hawks Answers Damage Suit

The answer of the defendant to the damage suit of Fred Robinson against Ralph Hawks, filed in Common Pleas court today through Attorney T. K. Funk, amounts to a general denial.

The suit grew out of a collision between the automobiles of the parties, which occurred at Grant and Grandview avenue, March 2, 1919.

Spears Alleges Untruthfulness

Alleging neglect and derision and deriding that he had been grossly deceived in his associations with other men, Thomas Spears, Green town ship farmer, seeks a divorce with custody of their minor child, in an action filed in Common Pleas court today against Delores Spears, who resides at 152 Welsh avenue, Columbus, whom he married May 12, 1912.

Through Attorney B. F. Kirbly, Spears complains that his wife abandoned him and their home on Oct. 15 last, with the explanation that she desired to live in the city where she could be in society and attend picture shows and dances. Furthermore Spears declares that after her associations began with other men she lost all affection for him and repeatedly told him so.

Brisker is Scored

William Brisker, Houston Holloway mill man, arrested today by Sheriff Ricker and brought before Judge Thomas in Common Pleas court on an indictment charging non-support of his five year old child, pleaded not guilty. His bond was fixed at $500 in default of which he was remanded to jail.

4 BIG DAYS-BEGINNING TODAY

Marshall Neilan
"The River's End"
by James Oliver Curwood

He loved her—she thought him her brother.

John Keith was impersonating Darwent Conniston. He had rehearsed thoroughly every detail of the English officer's life, but had not been warned that Conniston had a sister. And so, when he found her a slim, wonderfully pretty little thing who called him brother, he felt within him the impact of conflicting emotions, of contradictory impulses.

He loved her instantly; he wanted to tell her the truth, yet he knew that if he did so, he, a fugitive from justice, would be hanged.

This is only part of the extraordinary tale, "The River's End," by James Oliver Curwood and we pronounce it the best picture we have presented in months.

You'll Like Bebe Barrissale Better Than Ever in "The Woman Who Understood," Her Latest Picture at the Eastland Theatre Tonight.

Bebe Barrissale, one of the screen's most popular stars comes to the Eastland theatre tonight in her newest picture "A Woman Who Understood." This picture is so good we are not going to tell you one thing about it. But if you are looking for a clever, entertaining photoplay with one of the screen's most charming stars playing the leading part we urge you right at the door.

Constance Talmadge in "Two Weeks".

THE COMEDY HIT OF THE SEASON AT THE COLUMBIA TO-NIGHT, TO-MORROW AND WEDNESDAY N.

Constance Talmadge proves that a woman can get anything she wants if she only knows how to go about it, as you will see in "Two Weeks," a picture taken from "At the Villa," Anthony Whartons play, which will be shown at the Columbia Tonight, To-morrow and Wednesday.

Miss Talmadge, as Lillie, a show girl, flees from an escort who has been rude and winds up at the home of three crusty bachelors. The grave old butler is horrified at her appearance and tells her no woman are allowed on the premises. Nothing daunted, she shows him a slight thorn found something more to her liking.

It's the story of a chorus girl who was her way to stardom and then gives up the stage because she has allowed on the premises. Nothing daunted, she shows him a slight thorn found something more to her liking.

William Russell, better known as "Six-Foot-Four" in "Eastward, Ho!" in this photoplay appears, a star William Russell big, handsome, athletic. He comes to the Lincoln in a thrilling western adventure story of red-blonded American manhood, in which a brave westerner creates a lot of laughs as a "genuine" and lots of thrills in some tremendous fights, and more thrills in love complications, when he carries gun methods into New York City in fighting East Side gangsters who have kidnapped an innocent girl. The gang atmosphere is remarkable from life and the picture, which is a brilliant Fox production, with interest for those who seek the best in motion pictures. The ladies will be pleased to see his leading lady Miss Stewart is original, beautiful designs from Paris. You will find something good by staying away. Show starts at 8:30 promptly. Admission 11 and 20 cents.

STOCK COMPANY

AT THE SUN

The Mae La Porte Stock company, one of the strongest organizations of its kind on tour this season, opened a two-weeks' engagement at the Sun theatre at the matine this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, for the presentation of reigning dramatic hits of the year. "The Girl and the Sailor," a melodrama of powerful heart appeal, is the first play to be presented at the Sun by Miss La Porte and associate artists. It is declared that the production merges pathos and humor in form that is irresistible. The "punch" of romance and adventure are declared to thrill even the most blasé. "The Girl and the Sailor" will be given at the Sun again tonight, Tuesday and Wednesday. Thursday there will be a one-act play chosen from the program when "The Amazing Woman" will be given.

"The Girl and the Sailor" is the title of the two reel "Rainbow" comedy with Zip Malabar and leading the cast in fun-making and laugh producing. Also a reel of "Heart News."

At the Arcana Today

For this afternoon and evening Manager Potts offers a full program. The headliner is a western in two reels, entitled "Brimful Strife" with Hoot Gibson as the star. With Gibson is starred Virginia Earle, who is no means new to the screen. This Universal special is replete with plot, drama and thrills. "A Burning Love Affair" is the title of the two reel "Rainbow" comedy with Zip Malabar and leading the cast in fun-making and laugh producing. Also a reel of "Heart News."

Rules Committee To Meet

The Rules Committee of the Wholesalers and Manufacturers' Leagues, consisting of C. A. Burnett, Leet Lumber Co.; Carl Blankenbey, Gilbert Grocery Co.; Fred Jeffords, Elkhorn Hardware Co.; Walter Hans, Portsmouth Hat Co.; Wm. Gumpert, Old Store Co.; J. G. Turney, Standard Supply Co.; W. L. Belcher, Vulcan Lact Co., and Arthurs, Mitchell Manufact Co., will meet at Room 45, First National Bank building at 7:30 this evening.

The committee will draw up the rules that will govern the two leagues for the season of 1920. The representative of each team will also ask for such additional players as may be necessary to put a strong team in the field.

To Play In York Park

The base ball diamond at York Park is being prepared and put in shape for the ball season. The Wholesalers and Manufacturers' Leagues will play their games there this summer, and they are putting the grounds in better shape than they have ever been before. The Boy Scouts' League will also use York Park for their ball grounds.

The diamond and outfield has been plowed, disked and harrowed. In the early part of May, it will be leveled, the pitchers' mound built, and generally put in shape.

Home plate will be shifted over close to the telephone tower. A backstop, with a chicken wire roof, will be built, back of home plate, so arranged that any foul that would go over the backstop will be stopped by the backstop. Foul balls that clear the backstop will fall in the field.

Third base line will run along the river bank. A backstop ten feet high will be erected back of third base, to catch fumbles and overthrows from first, second, shortstop and the outfield. The season will start about the same time as the industrial league.

Hod Eller has demonstrated he can fit at least one ball club without the aid of his shiny ball.

Hod has been on the mound twice this year, both times against the Cubs. He wound up a game against them at Holland Field last week and Friday night had a whole contest at Chicago. In all he has worked 11 1/3 innings without his shiny and has yielded three runs and eight hits.

He often was less effective when he could pitch the shiny. The only difference between his pitching this year and last seems to be that he no longer is a strike out artist.

The Columbus Senators under the management of Sir William Clegg are getting away to a good start.

The team's pitching has only been mediocre, but its hitting has been sufficient to make up the deficiency in the team. Clymer is a real hustler and evidently is going to make good his declaration that he will give the Captain City another winner.

ANTWERP, April 26—Canada and Sweden will meet in the ice palace this tonight in a game which will determine the Olympic hockey championship. France and the United States were eliminated from first place yesterday, the former by losing to Sweden by a score of 4 to 2, and the latter by going down by a 2 to nothing defeat before the eyes of Canada after a stirring contest. That Canada will win the championship seems certain, as Sweden has little hope except to hold the others to a low score.

Under the Olympic rule, all teams defeated by the champion team must compete for second prize. Tens the millions will land in the big show.

PENNY ANTE

Chance To Get In The State Guard

This is the last week in the enlistment campaign for the National Guard to enlistment in the Guard. The local company is also to be a club where fellowship will reign supreme.

The Reds are still going. They beat Manager Rickey's Cardinals, 7 to 5, Sunday, before a big crowd in Nitro. The Moran Men had on their battling togs and slammed out 15 hits.

Ring worked for the Redland crew.

TOLEDO, O., April 24—A total of 1000 inductions have been made in the early closing events of the second Toledo Grand Circuit race meeting August 2 to 7. Seven stake events, make up the program and all are well filled according to Secretary John Jackman of the Toledo Driving Club.

The Wayne, for 2:05 pacers came through with fourteen entries, drawing such pacers as Caliger Earl, 2:02 1-1; Drift Patch, 2:03 1-4; John Henry 2:04 1-4; Red Lancer, 2:06 1-2 and Sembol S. Forrest, 2:03 1-4.

The News Ben stake for 2:10 pacers has 25 names which include some of the winners of the half mile track events in 1919.

The Steadman for 2:06 trotters with thirteen entries contains such favorites as Baron Cegante, Charlie Reed, Direct Forber, Dan de Lopez, Esperan, Hollywood Kate and The Toddler.

The Elks Club, 2:09 trot for a purse of $5,000 has nineteen nominations including several of the three year old stars of last year.

Toledo Bladie 2:14 trot for three year olds has thirty on the list. The Legal News open to all two year old trotters drew the prize entry list with 31.

In addition to the stakes there will be the class events with purses ranging from $1,000 up.

The Redville gang has copped six of its first nine games, which is a commanding clip. If Moran's pitchers come through like they did last year, the team has shot his bolt. He made a poor showing against Joe Welling in Columbus last week. Dundee's jester clashed with Champion Henry Leonard have evidently slowed him up.

Either Johnny Dundee, noted light-weight, is fighting stale or he is slipping. His last three fights were very poor ones and many believe that Dundee has shot his bolt. He made a poor showing against Joe Welling in Columbus last week. Dundee's jester

ST. PAUL, April 26—Tommy Gibbons, the St. Paul light heavyweight, and brother of the famous "phantom" will sail for England on May 21 to engage in several fights. He hopes to arrange a match with Joe Beckett, the British heavyweight, whom Georges Carpentier battered to defeat in seven-rounds. Gibbons believes he can duplicate the performance of the Frenchman.

Ralph De Palma one of the most popular automobile racing drivers in history, has signed to drive in the eighth annual 560-mile race to be held at the Indianapolis Speedway May 31.

Ralph will pilot a Ballot a product of the Ballot Motives, Paris, France.

His teammates in the big race are not announced, nor are any details of his car except that it will be of 150 cubic inches piston displacement three cubic inches inside the limit specified and that it will be a 1920 model.

Last year De Palma drove a 12 cylinder Packard and despite persistent engine trouble and trouble finished sixth.

In the American League all the lasters were hauled down yesterday except the White Sox. The Red Sox dropped their first game and the lowly Athletics rose up and smote the high priced Yankees.

Babe Ruth may be worth $125,000, but the New York fans have failed to see at least so far as Ruth has been nothing short a genuine, blushing the bottle blower.

Catcher Bentor of this city is playing great ball for the Spartanburg team in the Carolina Association.

In a recent game with three on, he smacked out a home run.

Bentor is a New York professional catcher and many predict that

St. Louis is the team to beat.

After a little polishing up in the minors he will land in the big show.

Supt. Frank Appel of the public schools stated today that the school at Carlyle Place would be abandoned. He visited it today and will have the children report in New Boston or Sciotoville. The small frame building narrowly escaped being demolished by a fast landslide last week, and Supt. Appel and members of the board thought it best to vacate the building, which is located just east of the filtration plant of the water works.

THE PASSING EVENTS

HERE appeared at the High School auditorium, one night last week, quartet that was proclaimed as the stellar one of its sort in the country. We are no fair judges as to that, our musical training not lending itself to ready judgment as to a high tenor and a basso profundo, except as to the volume of noise made, though we generally hit it by guessing to the contrary of appearances. The big fellow, with a fifty-inch chest, we set down as a tenor, and the little fellow that looks like he might wear a 26-inch Nemo, we place as a basso, and we nearly always hit it. However, this is all preliminary and by way of preliminary to the statement that Portsmouth is not musically inclined. The quartet was stellar, it was a joy to hear. It made one feel better and think better. The four voices were as attuned and beautiful, as evenly and unjarringly as the wind whispering and sighing in the pine tree tops and as harmonious as the purring and smiling waters. Yet the audience was scant, humiliatingly scarce, considering the rare treat offered them. The blame may be placed somewhat on the mechanical music box. Everybody has been sung half to death by them and so forgotten that in all the world there isn't anything so rare and sweet as the human voice exquisitely attuned.

To the contrary of the sparse few that attended the concert was the crowd that jammed to hear General Wood, at the same place, Wednesday evening. There wasn't standing room even, and, probably, more people went away that couldn't get so much as a peep, than heard the general. And he was one candidate who really helped his cause before the people. By no means of talent as a public speaker, he yet speaks in language all can understand and of evident candor, befitting courage that lifts him clearly out of the class of the mere politician out for votes. Disdaining the petty jibes of the partisan, he was respectful in allusion to that usual object of the rude opponent, President Wilson, and appeared more earnest in pleading for what should be done rather than in denouncing what had or hadn't been done. It was palpable that the meeting was a great satisfaction both to the general and his whole "entourage," along with his local supporters, and not without reason. Of course, it is as marrow to the bone to have an overflow political meeting, but this one went somewhat beyond that, it gave something for people to think about and turn in their mind, not so much for what was said, but because of the manner of the man back of the saying. While by the same token the opposition is considerably noupplussed and brought, for the first time, to realize how fatuous was the assumption that it was all one way. General Wood is going to get a good many votes in Portsmouth.

It was barking back to old times, when the gangsters and anti-gangsters were "woofing" each other to read Frank L. Sikes' Letter No. 1, that is, doubtless in the hands of every republican voter in Scioto county by this time. It was entirely Sikesque, that letter. It had something to say and there was no mealy mouthing in the saying and no camouflaging of authorship or decking of responsibility. It contributed more than a spark to the conflagration that has long been smouldering in the interior of the G. O. P. Evident enough it made it that things haven't been going just right for many and now it is the ripe time for rebellion. Voters are more susceptible now to appeal than ever. The old bonds of partisanship have fallen from them in a large measure, and they are not as obedient to the ancient methods of organization, which is another name for bossism, as they used to be. Oddly enough, they take less part in practical politics than they ever did, yet, they want things done more above board, and if they do not go to suit them they are less inclined to fall in.

THE WIDE DIFFERENCE

THE Associated Press was somewhat mixed in the words Friday, when it sent out word from Washington, that the supreme court of the United States was having a hearing of the appeal from Ohio on the right of the people to vote on constitutional amendments passed by the legislature.

Emphasis was laid on the fact that the vital point at issue was, "must or must not constitutional amendments be submitted to popular vote?" That is not the issue at all—not must at all, but may or shall. Nobody is contending that constitutional amendments must be passed upon by the people to make them valid or ineffectual, but it is strenuously insisted that under the referendum the electorate may have, and, on compliance with certain conditions, shall have, the right to ratify or nullify.

This latter is precisely the case presented in Washington. The assembly approved a constitutional amendment granting the voting franchise to women. Proper and sufficient steps were taken to submit that approval to the voter. Thereupon the eminent lawyers for the anti-saloon league said "it couldn't be done," it was unconstitutional to lay an amendment to the federal constitution "up to the electorate." The state courts all held for the people and the anti-saloon league as self-appointed guardian of their habits and morals took an appeal to the federal high court. That's the may, and shall the learned periwigs are to pass upon, and have the final say, the mere populace having already said it didn't want the amendment.

Now, the brieffleshest barrister in the village will tell you there is a mighty variation between must, may and shall in legal terminology. Must means imperatively must, may ordinarily involves a degree of discretion or choice; shall means must, but not before or upon an antecedent act, or condition. It is, probably, upon an application of these interpretations that the anti-saloon league is hanging its case. That new document, the state constitution, lays down many queer propositions, among others the referendum upon bills and enactments of the legislature and approval of prohibition was neither a bill nor an enactment, it was a resolution, hence neither may nor shall it be subject to any sort of repeal.

Queer doctrine, though, that the people are not the sovereigns in their own choice of rule.

The Diary of an Engaged Girl

LINDSEY IS PUZZLED BY HER COMPLEX NATURE

June 22—My mind is in a state of confusion tonight. I feel singularly at sea for some unknown reason. And between you and me, little books and not lamentably young. I wonder if anyone can fully understand just how tragic that is? Of course it is dead secret, and all that, but more and more often, of late, this same realization has swept over me—so I face it squarely now.

When you think how my bosom friends consider me a most worldly-wise young person, and mother, plus the relatives, dub me "advanced," "pert" and "over-read," etc. It is funny. They little dream that to myself I am really quite a child still!

And very helplessly unsophisticated, I don't for one moment think that they would believe me if I told them this; on the contrary, they would accuse me of adopting a "new pose."

That's my punishment, I suppose. The thing that puzzles me most is my complex nature. I am trying desperately hard to discover just what sort of a girl I really am; and just what makes me think and act as I do at times.

Was I born feeble and so full of life and emotions that it is impossible for me to settle to one point? Or is it that I am at an age when all men seem wonderful to me and when all that I need and crave are admiration and laughter—not anything so serious as love and marriage? I wish I knew. And no one can help me in this crisis but myself. I can't talk about all these wild feelings to them. That's what hurts.

And when I think of just what that final entrance into the world of life and the world means, I am frightened, panics-stricken, oh, terribly, pitifully so. It's often this same frightened and panicky feeling that drives me to being "pert"—sort of self-protection. You know how it is, all of you other girls. When you want to laugh and cry, or both, at the same time, and for no good reason—why you just naturally split the difference and turn "pert" as outsiders dub it. And it's really a pair of a girl-woman's most deep and tragically-sad feeling. The heart of girl, what a queer, twisted, joyful misland it is—so easy to capture—so hard to read and understand.

NEW YORK, April 27—A page from the diary of a modern Mrs. Samuel Pepys: "Up early, my husband, poor dole, complaining of this and that as if the world was askew and yet at breakfast he ate many cakes and a skillet of sausages, very ravenous. WHO'S WHO
In The Days News

SENATOR SUTHERLAND

The latest Republican to enter the race for the presidency is Senator Howard Sutherland of West Virginia. In announcing his candidacy recently Sutherland said:

"I favor strongly the appointment of a cabinet which will be composed of the ablest men to be found in the party who shall serve as a board of directors rather than as a board of managers and clerks."

"I am as opposed to a ruthless militaristic brand of policies as I am to a militaristic form of government. It should not, and I believe will not, be possible for coercive of men to force the nomination of any man for the presidency by the coordinate expenditure of money. If our party shall fail, it will be by such means as these."

Sutherland was not a native of the state, which is sending him to congress. He was born near Kirkwood, Mo., in 1885, and was educated in Missouri, graduating from Westminster college in that state in 1899. He served as editor of the Fulton, Mo., Daily Republican, 1899-1900. In the latter year he removed to Washington, D. C., and in three years he had risen from clerk in the population division of the census bureau to chief of the division. In 1903 he removed to Elkins, W. Va., where he served for ten years with the Davis-Mining coal and railroad interests, becoming general land agent. In 1913 he went into the coal and timber land business on his own account.

Sutherland was a member of the West Virginia state senate, 1905-12, and a member of the lower house of congress from 1903 to 1917. In the latter year he was elected to the U. S. senate. His present term will expire in 1923.

He was married in 1889 to a Missouri girl. He is a member of the Presbyterian church. His home address is Elkins, W. Va.

The Cubists declare that the Cubist toys, meaning less shapes of bright colors, stimulate the imagination and they appeal to the kiddies and to parents without the kiddies and to parents without the latter knowing it. "Do you mean to tell me Night has never even mixed me, said never told you I was lost from the other girls?"

"No, he never told me, but I supposed he would if I had seen him," said Button.

"Oh, I see," said Day. "You did not talk to him because he was so taken up with that pale-faced Spotty he could not see any one else."

"Go slow, my dear. You are jealous."

J. Lewis Milligan.

Just before dark, the boy came out to the enclosed yard and gave Day something to eat and she waited for him to give her a bundle of straw to lie on; but he did not think this necessary, as he supposed goats could lie on the ground just as well as not. So could some goats, but Day was used to better care, and when the sun went down, and the hard earth began to get cold, she climbed upon the pile of straw, and, after crying half an hour with homesickness and loneliness, fell asleep.

It just has been about twelve o'clock when Day was awakened out of a sound sleep, in which she was dreaming Night and Spotty were driving married by hearing a noise on the top of the fence above her.

Listening she heard a voice singing, "Maria, Maria, come over to my house and sit by the fire."

Had she heard that voice before? Golly! she sang on:

"Yes—No! She sang more attentively.

"Maria, Maria, come over to my house and sit by the fire."

Day and Button fell to scheming.

ous, that is what is the matter. I did not see Night because I have not been back to the place where we slept last night since about noon. They chased me away with a broom, and called after me that if I ever showed my black face there again they would blow my head off."

"For mercy sakes! Why did they do that?" asked Day.

"I suppose it was because I ate up the last of their twelve chickens and was caught on the kitchen table licking gravy off a plate from which I had just eaten some chops."

"I don't wonder that they threatened to shoot you or that they drove you off with a broom stick. You deserved it after the way you behaved," said Day.

"I know, my dear, and I am not complaining, am I? But come, tell me how am I to get you out of here!"

Had Passed Them On

My nephew visited me regularly and among his belongings his mother always put a supply of uts, which he thoroughly detested, and he was also much ashamed because he was obliged to wear them instead of being allowed a napskin. The first time he came after the arrival of a new baby brother I noticed there were no uts. On questioning him he replied magnanimously, "Oh, I gave those to mother for Frederic. You see, he didn't have any."

His Consideration

"Look you, Gup," chided a friend.

"What in thunder made you tell your wife you'd be home from the speaking dead shore by nine o'clock, when you know good and well it won't let out until half past ten or twelve?"

"She always begins to worry about me as soon as she thinks it's about time for me to show up," replied Gap Johnson, of Humpus Ridge. "So I figured I'd give her plenty of time to worry. My wife is like all the rest of the women, she isn't happy unless she's pestering about nuttin'."

The Rain

Singing In The Rain

I heard the robin singing in the rain At eventide, when all the trees were bare;

When springtime lagged, and winter's icy chain

Fettered the eager buds and fair.

I heard the robin singing in the rain At dusk, when the heart was dumb;

When hope was faint, and faith was sick with pain,

And sorrow sighed: "Ah love will never come!"

I heard the robin singing in the rain And in my heart there were an old, new song,

Responsive to that bird's undaunted strain,

And I went singing all the way along:

J. Lewis Milligan.

What the Operator Did

"The operator has given me the wrong number," said the man's voice.

"The number's all right," said the woman's voice. "The operator has given it to the wrong person."

Too Bad

"Biffour has invited me over to his house to take a drink of real Scotch whisky—smoky taste and everything."

"Ahh! You're lucky. There's precious little Scotch to be had nowadays. When are you going over?"

Rules Committee To Meet

Rules Committee of the Wholesale and Manufacturers' Leagues, consisting of C. A. Burnett, Lee Lumber Co.; Carl Blaenmeyer, Gilbert Manufacturing Co., will meet at Room 75, First National Bank building at 7:30 this evening. The committee will draw up the field.

The base ball diamond at York Park being prepared and put in shape for the ball season. The Wholesalers and Manufacturers' Leagues will play their games there this summer, and they are putting the grounds in better shape than they have ever been before. The Boy Scouts League will also use York Park for their ball grounds.

The diamond and outfield have been plowed, disked and harrowed. In the early part of May, it will be leveled, the pitcher's mound built, and generally put in shape.

Home plate will be shifted over close to the telephone tower. A backstop, with a chicken wire roof, will be built, back of home plate, so arranged that any foul that would go over the bank will be stopped by the backstop. Foul

SHINELESS HOD ELLER FOOLS 'EM

France And U. S. Eliminated

ANTWERP, April 20—Canada and Sweden will meet in the ice palace here tonight in a game which will determine the Olympic hockey championship. France and the United States were eliminated from first place honors yesterday, the former by losing to Sweden by a score of 4 to 2, and the latter by going down to 2 to nothing, and the latter by going down to 2 to nothing, before the Falcons of Canada after a strenuous contest. That Canada will win the championship seems certain, as Sweden has little hope except to hold the Falcons to a low score.

Under the Olympic rules, all teams defeated by the champion team must compete for second prize. Thus the United States, Czechoslovakia and the loser of tonight's game will draw for opponents following the contest.

Nitro Is Defeated

HUNTINGTON, April 23—Before one of the biggest crowds that ever witnessed a baseball game in Nitro, the Huntington Hoosiers won the opening game of the season by the score of 5 to 3.

Both clubs showed some real class for so early in the season and the hitting was hard and frequent.

Most recent picture of Dempsey, showing his infant mustache.

The latest dope is that Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, has been signed up for his first bout since annexing the title last July at Toledo. He is scheduled to appear in the ring July fifth at Benton Harbor, Mich. His opponent has not been selected. Floyd Fitzsimmons is the favorite. Fred Fulton, Bill Brennan and Billy Mike are among the probabilities for the honor of getting licked. Dempsey, deep in movie work, has started to raise a cute little mustache. Whether he'll shave it off before the fifth isn't known.

Benton Is Making Good

Catcher Benton of this city is playing great ball for the Spartanburg team in the Carolina Association. In a recent game with three on, he fanned out a Homer. Benton is a real catcher and many predict that after a little polishing up in the minors he will land in the big show.

Team Is Well Fortified

The Redville gang has copped six of its first nine games, which is a commendable clip. If Moran's pitchers come through like they did last year another pennant will float over Redland. The team is admirably fortified in all positions.

Tigers Get Poor Start

This is a great year for the dolesters. Is it not? Evidently it is. Many wiccars picked Detroit to win in the American League and the Tigers have not copped a single game so far, but

THE PASSING EVENTS

THE BELL appeared at the High School auditorium, one night last week, a quartet that was proclaimed as the stellar one of its sort in the country. We are no fair judge as to that, our musical training not lending itself to ready distinction between a high tenor and a basso profundo, except as to the volume of voice made, though we generally hit it by guessing to the contrary of appearances. The big fellow, with a fifty-inch chest, we set down as a tenor, and the little fellow that looks like he might wear a 26-inch Negro, we place as a basso, and we nearly always hit it. However, this is all preliminary and by way of preliminary to the statement that Portsmouth is not musically inclined. The quartet was stellar, it was a joy to hear. It made one feel better and think better. The four voices were as attuned and blended, as evenly and ungarishly as the wind whispering and sighing in the pine tree tops and as harmonious as the purring and snuffing waters. Yet the audience was scant, humiliatingly scarce, considering the rare treat offered them. The blame may be placed somewhat on the mechanical music box. Everybody has been sung half to death by them and so forgotten that in all the world there isn't anything so rare and sweet as the human voice exquisitely attuned.

To the contrary of the sparse few that attended the concert was the crowd that jammed to hear General Wood, at the same place, Wednesday evening. There wasn't standing room even, and, probably, more people went away that couldn't get so much as a peep, than heard the general. And he was one candidate who really helped his cause before the people. By no means of talent as public speaker, he yet speaks in language all can understand and of evident candor, betokening courage that lifts him clearly out of the class of the mere politician out for votes. Disdaining the petty jibes of the partisans, he was respectful in allusion to that usual object of the rude opponent, President Wilson, and appeared more earnest in pleading for what should be done rather than in denouncing what had or hadn't been done. It was palpable that the meeting was a great satisfaction both to the general and his whole "entourage," along with his local supporters, and not without reason. Of course, it is as narrow to the bone to have an overflow political meeting, but this one went somewhat beyond that, it gave something for people to think about and turn in their mind, not so much for what was said, but because of the manner of the man back of the saying. While by the same token the opposition is considerably nonplussed and brought, for the first time, to realize how fatuous was the assumption that it was all one way. General Wood is going to get a good many votes in Portsmouth.

It was barking back to old times, when the gangsters and anti-gangsters were "woofing" each other to read Frank L. Sikes' Letter No. 12, that is, doubtless in the hands of every republican voter in Scioto county by this time. It was entirely Sikesque, that letter. It had something to say and there was no mealy mouth in the saying and no camouflaging of authorship or ducking of responsibility. It contributed more than a spark to the conflagration that has long been smoldering in the interior of the G. O. P. Evident enough it made it that things haven't been going just right for many and now it is the ripe time for rebellion. Voters are more susceptible now to appeal than ever. The old bonds of partnership have fallen from them in a large measure, and they are not as averse to the ancient methods of organization, which is another name for bossism, as they used to be. Oddly enough, they take less part in practical politics than they ever did, yet, they want things done more above board, and if they do not go to suit them they are less inclined to fall in.

THE WIDE DIFFERENCE

THE Associated Press was somewhat mixed in the words Friday, when it sent out word from Washington, that the supreme court of the United States was having a hearing of the appeal from Ohio, on the right of the people to vote on constitutional amendments passed by the legislature.

Emphasis was laid on the fact that the vital point at issue was, "must or must not constitutional amendments be submitted to popular vote?" That is not the issue at all—not must at all, but may or shall. Nobody is contending that constitutional amendments must be passed upon by the people to make them valid or ineffectual, but it is strenuously insisted that under the referendum the electorate may have, and, on compliance with certain conditions, shall have, the right to ratify or nullify.

This letter is precisely the case presented at Washington. The assembly approved a constitutional amendment granting the voting franchise to women. Proper and sufficient steps were taken to submit that approval to the voter. Thereupon the eminent lawyers for the anti-saloon league said "it couldn't be done," it was unconstitutional to lay an amendment to the federal constitution up to the electorate. The state courts all held for the people and the anti-saloon-league as self-appointed guardian of their habits and morals took an appeal to the federal high court. That's the may, and shall the learned periwigs are to pass upon, and have the final say, the mere populace having already said it didn't want the amendment.

Now, the briefest barrister in the village will tell you there is a mighty variation between must, may and shall in legal terminology. Must means imperatively must, may ordinarily involves a degree of discretion or choice; shall means must, but not before or upon an antecedent act, or condition. It is, probably, upon an application of these interpretations that the anti-saloon league is hanging its case. That new document, the state constitution, lays down many queer propositions, among others the referendum upon bills and enactments of the legislature and approval of prohibition was neither a bill nor an enactment, it was a resolution, hence neither may nor shall it be subject to any sort of repeal.

Queer doctrine, though, that the people are not the sovereigns in their own choice of rule.

The DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

LINDSEY IS PUZZLED BY HER COMPLEX NATURE

JUNE 22—My mind is in a state of confusion tonight. I feel singularly at sea for some unknown reason. And between you and me, little looks like I am lamentably young. I wonder if anyone can fully understand just how tragic that is! Of course it's a dead secret, and all that, but more often, of late, this same realization has swept over me—so I feel it squarely now.

When you think how my bosom friends consider me a most worldly-wise young person and mother, plus long.

Sometimes I think that it is just because I am a girl, and the heart of a girl is a strange, strange land. It is really crystal pure and tender, yet full of strange possibilities.

That's what sort of a girl I really am; and just what makes me think and act as I do at times.

Was I born sickly and so full of life and emotions that it is impossible for me to settle for one man? Or is it that I am at an age when all men seem wonderful to me and when all that I need and crave are satisfaction and laughter—not anything else.

I know. And no one can help me in this crisis but myself. I can't talk about all these wild feelings to any.

Prayer does not help me. It seems nor meditation, for I have been meditating for days and never get any farther. I hope along come to the

The latest Republican to enter the lists for the presidency is Senator Howard Sutherland of West Virginia, announcing his candidacy recently.

"I favor strongly the appointment of a cabinet which will be composed of the ablest men to be found in the party, who shall serve as a board of directors rather than as a board of managers and clerks."

"I am as opposed to a ruthless militaristic brand of policies as I am to a militaristic form of government. It should not, I believe, be possible for coterie of men to force the nomination of any man for the presidency by theordinate expenditure of money. If our party shall fail, it will be by such means as these."

Sutherland was not a native of the state which is sending him to congress. He was born near Kirkwood, Mo., in 1865, and was educated in Missouri, graduating from Westminster college in that state in 1882.

He served as editor of the "Pulaski Daily Republican," 1889-90. In the latter year he removed to Washington, D. C., and in three years had risen from clerk in the population division of the census bureau to chief of the division. In 1897 he removed to Elkins, W. Va., where he served for ten years with the Davis-Minico coal and railroad interests, becoming general land agent. In 1903 he went into the coal and tire business on his own account.

Sutherland was a member of the West Virginia state senate, 1905-12, and a member of the lower house of congress from 1903 to 1917. In the latter year he was elected to the U. S. senate. His present term will expire in 1923.

He was married in 1899 to a Missouri girl. He is a member of the Presbyterian church. His home address is Elkins, W. Va.

just one thing after another. Three Cubist toy shops have been opened up in Manhattan. The Cubists declare that the Cubist toys, meaningless shapes of bright colors, stimulate the imagination and they appeal to the kiddie and to his parents without the latter knowing it. A league has been started to teach better elevator manners. There are people in this metropolis who will rush into an elevator with but on or off at a Joe Cannon angle. They think nothing of leaning on vagrant arms and if they want to get out at the fifth floor they will "Five O'Clock," instead of saying "Fifth floor please."

As a result of all of these annoyances the elevator operators have gone on strike. The chief reason is said to be that their request for minor privileges for the folks who work has been denied them. The last strike hit the Woolworth Building at the noon rush hour. And tenants on the fifty-second floor reached the main floor the next morning as the stenographers were coming to work.

There is a "runtine" barbershop down town where combs and brushes, shaving brushes, etc., are sterilized and put in sealed packages after being used. The barbers wear thin rubber gloves—the idea being that germs will slip off of them unless protected by skin chair. The other day a weather healer old fellow who has feasted 80 despite germs went into the place and threw down a hot potato which broke on the floor. "There's a parcel of germs" he shouted and I hope they git you." A panic followed.

BILLY WHISKERS

by FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

Just before dark, the boy came out to the enclosed yard and gave Day something to eat and she waited for him to give her a bundle of straw to lie on, but he did not think this necessary, as he supposed goats could lie on the ground just as well as not. So could some goats, but Day was used to better care, and when the sun went down and the hard earth began to get cold, she climbed upon the pile of boards, and after lying half an hour with home sickness and giddiness, fell asleep.

It must have been about twelve o'clock when Day was awakened out of a sound sleep, in which she was dreaming. Night and Spotty were married, by hearing notes on the top of the fence above her. Hearing this she heard a voice singing "Marie, Marie, come over to my house and sit by the fire."

Day had heard that voice before, and the voice sang on: "Yes—No! She listened more attentively. "Marie, Marie, come over to my house, and sit by the fire." Yes, it was Button, singing at the top of his voice as he walked along the top of the wall.

"Oh! Button, Button! I'm so glad to see you," called Day. "Gee Willkins! how in the world did you get that in here?" exclaimed Button. "You surprised me so it nearly made me fall off the fence. I thought you at home with Night and the other goats."

"I heard Day and Button sing to them. They always begin to worry about me as soon as she thinks it's about time for me to show up," replied John, son of Rumpus Ridge. "So I ignored it. I'll give her plenty of time to worry. My wife is like all the rest of the women she isn't happy unless she's pestering about with it."—KANSAS CITY STAR.

BOSTON, April 26—Everett Scott, shortstop of the Boston Americans, will break all major league records for playing in consecutive games when he takes the field against the Athletics at Philadelphia. With today's game Scott will have participated in 231 consecutive league contests. Lenders of the Philadelphia Nationals set the record at 231 games last season but he has not played this year.

Scott started his continuous playing on June 20, 1916 with the Red Sox and he has not missed a game since. Actu-

Strike Breakers At Russell

The Ironworkers Sunday morning said:

The strike situation locally took a new angle Saturday when the C. & O. imported quite a bunch of strike breakers and put them to work in the Russell yards under guard of quite a party of special officers said to be Baldwin men. The yards are well guarded and it is said that no approach is permitted by any of the idle men. It was variously reported that they were brotherhood men, yardmen from other localities and miners from the Bryan fields. The yardmen who are out say that one of the men who did not go to work informed them that the men were miners from the Bryan field and that they had been offered transportation and good wages to "handle coal" and that they had not been informed of the work they would do. It is also claimed that the men are all non-union, that they are being quartered at the Y. M. C. A. and one of the old men informed the Ironworkers last night that a movement against the Y. M. C. A. might be started on through labor channels, as the organization was not supposed to be controlled by the railroad company under such circumstances.

The embargo on west bound freight shipments was lifted by the C. & O.

yesterday and it is understood freight is now being accepted and forwarded.

Some thirty or more of the old yard-men are understood to have been given the intention of the company to dismiss them a few at a time.
